An informal meeting of persons interested in the formation of a tennis tournament in Barre during the coming summer was held in F. H. Rogers' store yesterday afternoon. A number of local tennis enthusiasts were present and plans were discussed for a revival of this popular outdoor sport. It is thought that at least two courts will be available for use during the season and others may be laid out. A good-sized list of persons who would be likely to take an interest in the idea was drawn up, and another meeting will doubtless be held within a few days. Meanwhile the matter will be thoroughly discussed in the hopes that enough enthusiasm may be aroused to provide some good sport during the next few months. A list of the names entered in the tournament and the places given them can be seen at this office.

The Tokio-Japanese troupe, who are at the Pavilion to-day, are a fine attraction for the children's matinee this afternoon. Two of the persons in the act are Japanese children. They are a little boy and girl. Their skill and daring as acrobats, on the ground and high in the air, are features of the act, which is one of the best acrobat and aerial acts ever seen at the Pavilion. Jack Symonds, the tramp comedian, seemed to be funnier than ever last night. He kept the audience in roars throughout his act. Both reels of pictures are excellent. In the picture entitled, "A Show Girl's Startagem," Miss Florence Lawrence is seen at her best.

AT THE PAVILION TODAY

Have you heard about the swell program we have on now? Every number is a headliner, a high class feature. Here they are:

TOKIO JAPANESE TROUPE

An act you cannot afford to miss. Positively one of the best vaudeville attractions before the public. The people tell us our shows get better every day, but we think we have gone the limit in this act. We don't think it is possible to ever get an act of this character that is better than this one. To-day is your last chance to see them.

JACK SYMONDS

The Man of Ease

Another headliner. He took five encores last night and every one of them was heavier than the preceding one. Going some ain't it. Don't fail to see this show. Come to-night.
